THE RED CROSS DRIVE IS ON.

Big Campaign For Fifteen Million Members Will End on Christmas Eve.

We must not fail in this drive. Every body at it means success. If you do not get your Certificate of Membership as soon as you expect wait a few days patiently. Certificates require time and care. Mail and express are uncertain these days and this may delay some of the material we promise you. The secretary is authorized to organize auxiliaries. Be sure the secretary gets the word. Call Red Cross Headquarters, Louisa, Phone No. 55. Get in the best report possible by Christmas Eve and keep on working. Good reports are beginning to come in. Full report of the results of the campaign cannot be made till next week.

Louisa is responding nobly to the Red Cross call. The town was divided into districts and closely canvassed. Very few houses or business houses will fail to show the warm glow of the Red Cross in their windows on Christmas eve. Those that do not will look awfully cold.

Rev. Hostwick and family went to Richardson Saturday night and organized an Auxiliary. They furnished a good musical programme.

The Western Union Telegraph company and the Southern Bell Telephone company are helping out in the drive by giving free service.

Red Cross Meeting Sunday Night.

All the churches in Louisa abandoned their regular services last Sunday night and joined in a Red Cross rally at the Baptist church, Rev. Gough, the pastor, is the county chairman of the big drive now on for a large membership. He presided at the meeting. The house was filled almost to its capacity, showing a most encouraging interest. The first speaker was Rev. A. C. Hostwick of the M. E. Church, secretary of the Lawrence County Chapter. He dealt almost entirely with interesting information about the Red Cross work. Rev. Hostwick is one of the best informed men on this subject to be found anywhere. He is unselfishly devoting nearly all his time to this great cause.

Rev. H. O. Chambers of the M. E. Church South, was next presented by the Chairman and made a very able address. He was followed by Rev. J. H. Stambaugh of the Christian church, who fired some center shots at the Kaiser and aroused the audience to a high pitch.

The question of organizing the public school into a Red Cross body came up and was settled favorably by a number of persons guaranteeing the membership fees. These guarantors agreed to take care of groups from 20 down, making a total of 300 or more.

The meeting was a big success. Results were evident the next day in persons voluntarily joining after having refused the solicitations of committees last week.

21 KENTUCKY COUNTIES

SET HIGH CANNING MARK.

Report Of State Agent Values Food Preserved By Women At $1,108,260.00.

In a report of food production and conservation work during the season of 1917 sent to the Department of Agriculture at Washington by Mrs. Helen B. Wolcott, State home demonstration agent, credit is given the girls and women of twenty-five counties of Kentucky for canning of vegetables and fruits valued at $1,108,260.00, with a total of 4,932,267 containers.

The report from the office of the State agent in 1916 showed 227,130 containers at a net value of $41,336.53. Credit for the showing of the State for the year is given by Mrs. Wolcott to the address of Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Carl V. Johnson before the county agents in Lexington, telling of the need of the nation for food and warning Kentucky people that starvation faced them unless they raised the food needed themselves instead of relying on outside States.

Home demonstrators have organized canning work in only twenty-five counties of the State, and the report made covers only the counties included in this list. Nearly 16,000 women and girls of the State have enrolled in canning classes, the report shows.

COURT JUDGMENT ASIDE.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 14.—Ruever J. W. Jeffers, of the Central Life Insurance company, is entitled to another "go" according to the Court of Appeals. In his suit against W. B. Taylor and J. W. Vickers, of Pike-co., on stock notes for $2,550 and $4,250, respectively, judgments were given by the Pike Circuit Court for the defendants and ordering the cancellation of the notes on the ground of fraud, and the judgments were affirmed by the Court of Appeals. In an opinion by Judge Miller, but the court said the receiver may yet make application to set the judgments aside.

CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH.

The home of Toke Rawick, a miner, at Keyser, Pike-co., was destroyed by fire Monday night and three small children perished in the flames. Mrs. Rawick narrowly escaped.

CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINMENT,
M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.

The Christmas entertainment this year will be in the form of the "White Christmas." The key word for this entertainment is the word "Others." To this end every member of the church or Sunday school is expected to come to the church on Christmas Eve at 6:30 with a package of some kind. The package may contain clothing, fruits, candles, toys or other articles. Each package should be wrapped in white paper and tied with white string. If the gift is money it should be put in a white envelope. At the proper time every one will have an opportunity to deposit his gift upon the platform.

The gifts will be given to the needy of our own city and should there not be enough worthy persons in our midst to use what we receive the remainder will be sent to the orphan home. An especially worthy cause is that of the starving men, women and children of persecuted and war-torn Armenia and Syria. The Sunday school of the M. E. Church South, with others, has been called upon to contribute at least five cents a member to the Armenian and Syrian Relief Fund. The money received at this "White Christmas" entertainment will be devoted to this cause. Every member of our church will have this opportunity to do something for others.

A short, interesting program will be rendered. Every one is cordially invited to be present. HERBERT O. CHAMBERLAIN, Pastor.

ENSIGN CRUTCHER AND BRIDE.

Ensign Chumney Crutcher and bride who have been the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Crutcher of Holden and friends in Huntington left Wednesday for the East, where Lieutenant Crutcher will join his battleship, New Hampshire.

INCOME TAX REPORTS MUST BE MADE.

U. S. OFFICERS TO VISIT EVERY COUNTY SEAT AND ASSIST CITIZENS.

Lexington, Ky., December 18.—You won't have to figure out your own income tax all by yourself hereafter. The government is going to send out men to help you. It will be up to you to hunt up these men, who will be sent into every county seat town, and some other towns besides, to meet the people. Postmasters, bankers and newspaper men will be able to tell you when the government's income tax man will be around, and where to find him. He will answer your questions, sweat you to the return, take your money, and remove the wrinkles from your brow. Reports of income for 1917 must be made between January 1 and March 1, 1918.

"The government recognizes," Collector of Internal Revenue Italy said today, "that many persons experience a good deal of difficulty in filling out income tax forms. It recognizes too that taxpayers resident at points where collectors' offices are not easily accessible find it hard to get proper instruction in the law. Next year, when every married person living with wife or husband and having a net income of $2,000 and every unmarried person not the head of a family and having a net income of $1,000 for the year 1917 must make return of income on the form prescribed, there will be hundreds in every community seeking light on the law, and help in executing their returns. My own and every other collector district in the nation will be divided into districts with the county as the unit and a government officer informed in the income tax assigned to each district. He will spend hardly less than a week in each county, and in some counties a longer time, very likely in the courthouse at the county seat town. In cities where there are collectors' branch offices, he will be there, and in other cities possibly at the city hall. My office will be in due time advise postmasters and bankers and send out notices to the newspapers stating when the officer will be in each county. It will be unnecessary for prospective taxpayers to ask my office for forms or which to make returns. The officer who visits their county will have them.

"It may be stated as a matter of general information, that 'net income' is the remainder after deducting expenses from gross income. Personal, family, or living expense is not expense in the meaning of the law, the exemption being allowed to cover such expenses.

"The new exemptions of $1,000 and $2,000 will add tens of thousands to the number of income taxpayers in this district. Inasmuch as practically every farmer, merchant, tradesman, professional man and salary worker and a great many wage workers will be required to make return and pay tax. 'The law makes it the duty of the taxpayer to seek out the collector. Many people assume that if an income tax form is not sent or a government officer does not call, they are relieved from making report. This is decidedly in error. It is the other way round. The taxpayer has to go to the government if he doesn't within the time prescribed, he is a violator of the law, and the government men will go to him with his penalties."

At Louisa Jan. 28 to Feb. 3.

LATELY—The department has just announced that an income tax officer will be at Louisa January 28 to February 2 to assist the people in making their reports. Paintsville, February 1 to 9, Incr. February 14 and 15.

$200,000 FIRE AT HOLDEN WEST VA.

THE LARGE COMPANY STORE,
MANAGED BY W. J. CRUTCHER,
ER, DESTROYED.

A loss estimated at $200,000, was caused by a fire which destroyed the interior and practically the entire contents of the large two-story general store of the Island Creek Coal company at Holden early Wednesday morning.

The fire was discovered shortly after two o'clock by a boy, who saw a blaze coming from the basement to the front end of the store. He gave the alarm and although the citizens worked heroically to check the flames the blaze was not stopped until it turned itself out. It was fortunate for Holden that the building was constructed as fire proof, as the stone walls kept the flames confined and prevented the spread of the fire. The interior of the building from cellar to roof was completely gutted, leaving the four stone walls standing intact.

The fire is believed to have been the work of an incendiary. The Holden watchman passed the building not more than twenty minutes before the fire was discovered and he saw no signs of a blaze of any kind. When the fire was first discovered the flames were eating their way up through the floor from the basement in the front of the store. The store was heated by steam, the heating apparatus being located in the rear of the basement, and it is impossible to conceive how the fire could have started where it did unless it was deliberately ignited by some person.

That the fire did not start at the furnace and spread to the front, where it broke through to the upper floors, is demonstrated by the fact that the very little unburned portion of the store was the lower floor in the rear, almost directly over the furnace. The officers of the county and the County Council of Defense will make a rigid investigation of the origin of this fire. W. J. Crutcher, general manager of the stores of the Island Creek Coal Co., estimates the loss of the merchandise consumed at $140,000 to $160,000. When the damage to the building is added the total loss will approximate $200,000. We understand the loss was almost entirely covered by insurance.

The safe in the store contained about twelve thousand dollars in cash. Whether or not this escaped destruction is unknown as they have not as yet been able to raise it from the ruins.

Wednesday morning Manager Crutcher immediately started getting ready for business. The building of the moving picture theater was taken over and the inclined floor torn out. Workmen started to work at once building scaffolding and counters and the place was ready for business on Thursday morning. The warehouse of the company, which was just across the alley in the rear of the burned building, was saved from the fire by the fact that steel shutters were on the rear windows of the store. This warehouse is crowded with probably $100,000 worth of merchandise, so that the new store can be immediately stocked with goods.—Logan Democrat.

YOUNG OFFICERS,

Free From Training Schools, Report
For Duty At Camp Taylor.

Louisville, Ky., December 16.—One hundred young officers, fresh from training camps with their commissions reported at Camp Taylor to-day and took up the task of "settling down" under difficulties. The miles of camp streets have been cleared of snow, but the task of the men had difficulty in having their luggage delivered. Forty officers of the Quartermaster's Corps from Ft. McPherson also reported and were assigned to quarters.

Official announcement was made to-day that $50,000,000 war risk insurance had been placed among the men at the camp. The majority of policies are for $7,500.

The widowed mother of Virgil Spencer, of Salt Lick, Ky., whose death took place Friday, caused by pneumonia, will receive $10,000. Spencer had taken out the policy only a short time prior to his illness.

HOME GUARD IS PLANNED

FOR STATE PROTECTION

Lexington, Ky., December 16.—Adj. Gen. Taody Ellis said here tonight that a Kentucky home guard to protect the State against any outbreak of outlawry would be formed at the beginning of 1918. The Kentucky Home Guard would be separate from the United States Guards, which the Government recently announced would be formed, but its organization will follow the same lines. Men above and below draft age will be offered by Spanish War veterans and officers declared ineligible for foreign service. Formation awaits passing of a law by the Legislature to supplement the old National Guard law.

G. F. FRIEL MARRIED.

G. F. Friel, former owner of the Ashland Daily Independent, was married to Miss Sara Hilson Gillen, of Lexington. The marriage was solemnized at Covington at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Homer Clay Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Friel left at once for Hattiesburg, Miss., where they will visit his son, Lieut. William Friel. They will make an extended tour of the South before returning to Ashland, where Mr. Friel is a leading life insurance agent and real estate dealer.

NATIONAL PROHIBITION NOW IN SIGHT.

CONGRESS HAS PASSED BILL TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Congress this week passed a bill providing for National Prohibition. It is in the form of an amendment to the Constitution, which will become effective when ratified by the Legislatures of 36 States. This must be done within seven years after the passage of the bill. Temperance people predict it will be accomplished within three years. The manufacture, sale or importation of intoxicating liquors will then be prohibited throughout the United States for beverage purposes.

This is the greatest victory yet achieved by the prohibition forces and it brings within sight the goal so long sought by them. This is the only effective treatment for one of the world's two greatest curses. The other is the Kaiser, and death will end his blundering career sooner or later. Prohibition in spots is far from satisfactory, but national prohibition will eventually wipe out the evil.

It is now up to the Kentucky Legislature, which will meet early in January 1918 to ratify the national amendment.

FIRST NAME ON HONOR ROLL.

The following from the Reporter, Camp Taylor, is of interest to Lawrence county friends and relatives of Mr. Stewart:

Co. D, 39th Engineers, Camp Taylor, Kentucky.

To Printer Stewart, a young man of unusual disposition who lives on Rural Route No. 6, Ashland, Ky., has come an honor never before accorded a man in Boyd county and one that will make his name a prominent note when the history of the country is written. Mr. Stewart's number which was given him on the list of those who had enlisted in the first national army in the history of the United States was the first to be drafted for Boyd county out of the great glass bowl in Washington. He was the first man called before the local examining board and the first man to waive claims for exemption to represent Boyd county in the conscription by the local board and the first selected by the district at Camp Taylor at Louisville as one of Boyd county's first men who testified in church that was held in the Y. M. C. A. by Rev. J. H. Smyth. Mr. Stewart said he did not fear war for it was his time to go and he was ready.

The Lord blessed him and gave him a home in this world he was willing to live it out and go to the heaven where no death or suffering can enter. There is a place for every soul in war or out of war. Mr. Stewart is the first man drawn in the Camp Taylor kitchen and he is now training other men to cook. He was the first man to go to Hattiesburg and we transferred him to the Co. D, 39th Engineers. He is the first man in history to be the first man under our flag that has been first in every part of our play, backing up his country, his home, on land or sea. He is the best standing young man in Camp Taylor. Stand in front with all men known in the history of America. He is present day and night with the spirit from God and the spirit of the bride say: 'Conquer and let him that heareth say come and let him that thirst come and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.'

Respectfully,

FRANK E. GORGE, Colonel.

IMPORTANT TO SOLDIER BOYS.

The Adjutant General has notified Messrs. A. J. Garred, Clyde L. Miller and Wm. M. Fulkerson of their appointment as a Legal Advisory Board, Lawrence-co., with request that they select a number of capable men as assistants. The duties of this Advisory Board are primarily to assist all registrants in filling out questionnaires. Any registrant who is not able to fill out his questionnaire should apply to one of the members of this Legal Advisory Board for help. It will not cost the registrant one cent to have any one of these gentlemen assist you in this work. This Board will, no doubt, have a common headquarters or office at which some one of them may be found each hour of the day for the next two weeks.

KNITTING CURES

HIS NERVOUSNESS

New York.—Jno. G. Ballard of Ashville, N. C., was recovering from nervous prostration when knitting came into fashion. He couldn't read, so he watched his nurse knit. Finally he decided to have her teach him how to knit. Mr. Ballard is now in New York at the Hotel Majestic. He left all his ailments at home, but he brought his knitting. He has knitted fourteen sweaters since he began, and his nervousness has gone. He declares that in trying not to drop a stitch he forgot himself and soon his nervousness began to disappear. Mr. Ballard is a retired lumber dealer and is anxious for other nervous men to learn of his cure.

TEACHERS TO BE GIVEN

CREDIT FOR MEETING

It has been suggested by State Superintendent of Schools, Gilbert, that the teachers who attend the Eastern Kentucky Mountain Life Conference to be held in Louisa January 10-12 will be allowed to count the time in their schools.

EXPLOSION IN MINES IN McDOWELL COUNTY

Charleston, W. Va., December 16.—State Chief of the Department of Mines Earl Henry left this evening for Saxeanna, McDowell-co., where he will make a thorough investigation of the explosion which occurred there late Saturday and caused the death of seventeen miners.

According to information received here, all of the bodies of the seventeen men have been recovered from the explosion which occurred there late Saturday and caused the death of seventeen miners. The identity of several has not been established as yet.

An inspection also will be made of the mine before men are allowed to resume their work. Mr. Henry said, it has been said that the cause of the explosion Saturday was due to the fact that the mine had been idle for three days and gas had been allowed to accumulate.

RECAPTURED IN TEXAS.

Lexington, Ky., December 17.—Everett White, who escaped from the Kentucky House of Reform at Greendale June 29, 1912, was returned to that institution last night from Ft. Arthur, Texas. White was sent up for life from Boyd county in 1911 on a charge of murder. He asked the Governor to pardon him that he may enlist for the war. White now is 23, and unless he is pardoned he will be transferred within a few days to the prison at Frankfort.

TO FLORIDA CAMP.

Four hundred drafted men have been ordered by Adjutant General Ellis to report at Fort Barrancas, Florida, to become members of the training school for the coast artillery. The men will be selected from the quota of drafted men as follows: Fleming county, 50; Johnson county, 60; Campbell county, 90; Lewis county, 40; City of Covington, 80, and City of Newport, 50.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO EVERY REGISTREE MAN.

INFORMATION FOR ALL WHO ARE

ON THE SELECTIVE DRAFT

LIST.

The War Department is requiring every man within draft age to fill out a new set of questions, so as to classify the entire list. Exemptions already made do not count, so far as this work is concerned. Every man must fill out these new blanks within seven days after they are sent out. The following information comes to us from the Local Board of Lawrence county:

Messrs. A. J. Garred, Clyde L. Miller and Wm. M. Fulkerson have been recommended to the President by the Governor and each of these attorneys has been duly appointed, accepted and qualified, and hold themselves in readiness to assist registrants for the next three weeks in the doing of this important work. It is a gratuitous service on their part, and they have called to their assistance, other capable men, viz: A. D. Carter, R. A. Stoope, Fred See, T. S. Thompson and M. Vinson, and perhaps others. The assistance of these men will cost the registrant nothing, and these gentlemen should be freely used by registrants who may need assistance in any particular in connection with the classification work.

It will be the duty of the gentlemen named to organize the work of this Advisory Board, appoint associate members. No formal appointment by the President shall be necessary. It will be the duty of each member of the Legal Advisory Board and Associate Members, primarily, to maintain an office, or headquarters, where they may easily be found by all registrants, and to help them in filling out their questionnaires, to give advice and assistance in preparing claims and assist in filling out any other papers required, or desired, under the regulations, to be submitted to the Local Board by a registrant.

For his assistance in the work, the Governor has the active cooperation and assistance of the American Bar Association and it should be the pride of every lawyer in Lawrence county that no registrant within the good county of Lawrence is without competent legal advice and assistance in preparing all papers that such registrant is required to submit in the process of the selection of citizens of this county for duty in the present emergency. This Legal Advisory Board will render its patriotic service in this.

A telegram to this Legal Advisory Board from the Adjutant General dated December 15 reads as follows: "It is of paramount importance to the selective features of the draft and to effective employment of man-power of the army, that the occupational qualifications of every registrant be stated fully, with precision in his questionnaire. Therefore the registrant's answers to Series I, Question 3, page 1, must without fail specify his particular job in his industry, by answering, for example, not merely 'Railroad,' but 'tracklayer,' or 'Trainman,' or 'car-shop repairer.' Answer to question 3, Series I, should be made as specific as if made to questions 4, 9 and 10, in Series II, page 12."

Members of Legal Advisory Board and Associate Members should enter upon left-hand margin of front page of questionnaire of registrants to whom they give advice or assistance the following: "AID GIVEN BY ME." "PERMANENT MEMBER" or "ASSOCIATE MEMBER."

TO FARMERS AND BUSINESS MEN.

Public Meeting at Court House in Louisa Friday, Dec. 21, at One O'clock.

A farmer's and business men's patriotic rally will be held at the court house in Louisa at one o'clock p. m., Friday, December 21 to which everybody is invited.

Mr. K. L. Varney, a vigorous speaker, will bring a most important message to all. He is the well known Agricultural Agent of the U. S. in charge of the Big Sandy valley work. The matters he will talk about will interest you from a financial as well as from a patriotic standpoint. Mr. Varney wants to talk to us all about the Kaiser, the unspeakable Hun, the food situation, how a pig carries a machine gun for the American farmer, how an ear of corn is a part of every flying pole in the land—short, how the American farmer can do his part in beating the Kaiser. Don't miss this meeting. It will be worth your while. Men, women, boys and girls invited.

TOUGH FOR PAUL GARY!

Army Won't Let Him Take Glass
Eye Back To Germany.

Paul Gary, of Anderson, Ind., is all American, with the exception of a glass eye. The substitute optic is alien.

Gary tried to enlist in the United States Marine Corps but was rejected when his infirmity was discovered by Sergeant G. C. Wright.

"Didn't you know that loss of an eye would prevent you enlisting?" asked the sergeant.

"I thought it might," explained Gary, "but this glass blinker is the only part of me that was made in Germany, and I want to take it back."

He was advised to mail it.

PEOPLE OF HALIFAX GIVE

THANKS IN CHURCH CELLARS

Halifax, N. S., December 16.—Religious services were held today in the basements of churches, partly demolished by the explosion of December 3, and large congregations gave thanks that their Canadian neighbors and American friends had been so quick to come to the rescue of the stricken city. It was not a day of rest, however.

The work of restoring the broken buildings was carried on by carpenters and glaziers. Glass stations were open and glass was distributed to all who presented orders from the proper authorities.

MAN IS CRUSHED BETWEEN CARS.

At an early hour Friday, Doc Hutchison of Kellogg, was caught between cars on the Kenova yards of the B. & O. and crushed to death.

Hutchison was preparing to couple the cars, which were standing near a shifting engine. While he was occupied with this work a negro climbed into the engine cab and threw on the steam. The impact caught Hutchison between the cars. His chest was severed and a blow in the chest near the heart crushed his life out.

Hutchison, a member of a well known Wayne county family, is survived by a wife and four children, and also his mother.

LAWRENCE COUNTY JAIL

HAS CHANGED HANDS

Jailer Noah Wells and family moved on Wednesday of this week to their farm at Sacred Wind, this county. Mr. Wells' term of office expires December 31, but he is moving a few days earlier, fearing that the weather might be more inclement later. Mr. Wells and family have made many friends while living in Louisa. He is one of the best citizens in the county.

His successor, Sam Sturges, and family have moved to the jailer's residence.

Sam Sturges, the new jailer, is also a good man, worthy to succeed Mr. Wells.

FOR UNIVERSAL DRILL

National Army at Camp Grant
Favors Measure.

Vote 4,601 to 136 for the Military Training of All Boys of Nineteen.

Rockford, Ill.—The Eighty-sixth division of the National army emphatically advocates universal military training for young men. By the "division" is meant not its officers but its enlisted men—its privates, sergeants, and corporals—men taken from civil life in the last three months under the selective service act.

The first sergeants of 85 companies and batteries have polled their men on the question and have reported the results.

"Do you think all young men should have at least six months' military training when they reach nineteen years of age?"

The return cards show these totals:
Number of men favorable, 4,601.
Number of men opposed, 136.

One side of the card was left blank for "further information or remarks." What was written there showed the reasons for the vote. The emphasis was about equally divided between the benefits to the men receiving the training and the protection of the nation. The geographical source of the unit—whether it came from the congested areas of Chicago or the open hills of Wisconsin—seemed to make no difference.

The question was put before the men on its own merits and without argument.

HUMAN DOLL COSTUME

This great big human doll is most successful as an agency of gathering funds for relief organizations. The costume is most unique and attractive and will prove to be of the same good purposes everywhere if young ladies in the many cities will take to wearing it at the many bazaars throughout the United States to raise funds for the soldiers and for many other worthy purposes.

The costume is made on full lines and is something on the style of a riding habit, except for the unusually shaped hat.

GUS, JUST GUS, NOT GUSSIE

New Jersey Bought Comfort Kits and Soldier Writes to "Miss Hartman."

New York.—This thing of adopting one of the boys in the trenches may be all right for the women, but Gus Hartman, a janitor in the Essex county courthouse at Newark, N. J., is at a loss to know just why or how he should go about it. Some time ago he contributed to a fund to buy comfort kits for the soldiers, and his name as "Gus" Hartman was placed on a card in one of the kits. Soon he received the following letter:

"My Dear Miss Hartman:
"It is very strange that not until now did I discover your name concealed in a comfort kit given to me by my district board. Nevertheless I took advantage of the 'find' and this letter is the result.

"Tell me something about yourself. I am sure I would like to meet you when I am in Newark some time, or perhaps when you make a visit to Camp Dix.

"If you have one, inclose a picture of yourself.

"Write P. D. Q. Sincerely, W. F. Company D, 812th Infantry, Camp Dix, N. J.

"P. S.—Excuse the pencil. It was the only handy writing implement."

GERMANY MUST
QUIT BY SPRING

Collapse Is Predicted by American Who Recently Escaped From Country.

PEOPLE SUFFERING ACUTELY

Internal Conditions Far Worse Than Picture—Some War Loans to Be Repudiated—Austria Is Unable to Break Away.

Zurich.—An American citizen has arrived here with an amazing story of internal conditions in Germany.

Since war was declared this man, whose identity is kept secret at his own request, has lived in Germany. He has worked with Germans, dwelt with them, been one of them, and has acquired an intimate knowledge of conditions existing in Germany.

In his opinion Germany is suffering acutely now, and dissatisfaction and worse reign in certain strata of her army and navy. Recent mutinous uprisings have had to be sternly repressed and the mutineers shot.

Thoughtful Germany, he thinks comprising men of the Hallin type, is desperately eager for peace, and secretly eager to end the war before America has been utterly alienated.

Feared Army Service.

This man left Germany early in October, because he had reason to fear that he was to be impressed for military service.

"The economic situation in Germany," he says, "is far worse than any one on the outside realizes, is so critical that I for one look for a break, a collapse, next spring or late in the winter. Nor are the good crops that one hears boasts about every once in so often going to change the situation materially.

"Throughout the German people there is what amounts to a hatred of America, and this hatred has been carefully concentrated on President Wilson, because it is easier to hate a man than a nation—especially a nation that is the home of pretty nearly every one's relative.

Do Not Hate America.

"But the big men of Germany, the men who have to look ahead and guide the empire after the war, do not hate America. They feel too keenly that they need America, and they would like to stem the tide of hate before it becomes mutual and the United States is alienated, perhaps for all time.

"They know that after the war there is only one country in the world where they can get the money they will need, America, and they are worrying a plenty nowadays.

"They, and all Germany, want increasingly a peace that shall specify, among other things, the right to purchase raw as well as finished materials anywhere in the world on the same terms as any other nation.

"Every indication points to probable confiscation of property and repudiation of perhaps half the war loans after the war. Even the percentage of property to be confiscated is being talked of, and it seems probable that the government will take 20 per cent of everything.

To Nullify War Loans.

"On the other hand, it seems probable from all I hear that an even half of all outstanding war loans will be nullified. Fifty per cent will be repaid, and the other 50 per cent will either be canceled or will merely continue to pay interest, will be a sort of perpetual investment, the capital for which cannot be realized.

"As surely as anything can be predicted there will be in the central power a series of laws forbidding emigration, and in anticipation of them countless Germans today are talking about ways and means of getting away after the war. The first German ship that lands in America after hostilities will leave 70 per cent of its crew behind.

"It is becoming clearer and clearer to Germans every day that all the talk that has gone the rounds about a 'Central Europe' after the model of Professor Naumann and others will be out of the question.

"Contrary to the belief that seems to be almost universal outside of Germany, I really believe that pan-Germanism is on the decrease among the masses of the people, and this despite the increased noise about it everywhere in Germany and the intensive way in which it is being encouraged. The reason for this is that more and more the German people are coming to realize what a catastrophe it will be for them after the war is over if they are hated in all the world. Pan-Germanism, they are coming to feel, is likely to intensify the feeling against them, and thereby make their economic struggle in the future more difficult."

Butterflies Rob Bees.

Fresno, Cal.—Butterflies have become so greedy in Fresno county that honey bees have gone on strike, according to C. R. Snyder, bee inspector of this district. The butterflies have been robbing the bees of the nectar in flowers, and finally the honey makers became sort of discouraged, and recently the bees have virtually been doing no work at all. Inspector Snyder says there has been but little feed because of the lack of spring rains.

Join the Red Cross by Christmas Eve and prove that you are a loyal citizen.

It costs only one dollar a year to belong to the Red Cross. Who is not willing to help that much in the war? Thousands of young men are giving their lives.

Almost everybody can help in the war through the Red Cross, and anyone who can and does not is going to be put on the slacker list before this war is over.

The man who used a wart on the back of his neck for a collar button no longer stands before the world as the slacker fellow on earth. The citizen who refuses to join the Red Cross has robbed him of that distinction.

We call the attention of our readers to the program of the Eastern Kentucky Mountain Life Conference, published on page three of the NEWS. Some of the greatest speakers in Kentucky are to be here. You will be surprised at the large list of strong men. This will be one of the finest meetings ever held in the Big Sandy valley. Prepare to attend. Mr. K. L. Varnoy, the hustling Agricultural Agent, is promoting this gathering.

"No man's land" cannot be tolerated in this country now," declared Bishop Luther B. Wilson, Methodist dignitary returned from the Italian war zone, in an address at Cincinnati Wednesday night. "You are either American in heart and soul, or you are traitor to the country that gave you substance," he stated.

Bishop Wilson called on his hearers and on all Americans for solid support, financial, physical and moral, in the war. He pointed out possible results to this country, should the German drive in Italy become successful, and paid high tribute to French and British soldiers. "I shall never again call an Englishman 'cousin,'" he said. "I shall hereafter call him brother."

DOING WHAT WE DON'T WANT TO (By Dr. Frank Crane.)

There are probably just now more people in the United States doing what they don't want to than at any period in our history.

And as a rule they are remarkably good-natured about it.

The drafted men don't like going to camp. They're doing it. But few of them would select as a preferred occupation sleeping in a windy barrack, getting up at half-past five in the morning, eating at a table of rough boards, washing their own plates, walking miles each day, pulling stumps, scrubbing floors, and all that. Yet they're doing it, and singing thereby.

Moneyed men didn't particularly want to put their money in Liberty Bonds at 4 per cent when they could get more elsewhere. Yet they did, with a rush. And made a gala day of it.

Parents did not want to let the boy go to be a soldier. Very few in this country choose soldiering as a career. The father wanted the boy in his business, where his prospects were bright. The mother didn't like the idea of giving twenty-five years of her life to her child, and then feeding him to cannon. But they did it. And dad brags about the boy, and mother smiles as she tells of him, though she may weep in secret. Housewives don't like skimping in the kitchen, and wheelless and meatless meals, and no sugar. Yet they're managing it gamely, and you hear little complaints.

Young wives don't want to give up their husbands, and tackle an untoward and widowed in the fullness of their youth. Yet they're doing this, and their eyes are bright, and their talk is cheery, though they have to keep their hearts with all diligence.

We who saw a better way than war, who pleaded for international co-operation and world-government, don't like to set aside our conviction, to accept the inevitable. But our country has made its stand, deliberately, legally, orderly, and we accept the situation loyally. Whole heartedly we accept the decision of the majority, and give not only our money and our lives, but our whole thought to our country.

We are all doing what we don't want to, and doing it enthusiastically, for the sake of something bigger than ease or profit or pleasure or pride of opinion—for the sake of right, and to put down the gravest menace that ever threatened the human race.

And we're finding out something. We're discovering that the dearest joy in life is not getting what you want, but in doing for a high purpose what you don't want to do.

This is the joy of overcoming. And he that overcometh shall receive the martyr's star.

Alex Garred Now In France.

Lieutenant Alex Garred, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Garred of Huntington, and nephew of Mr. L. T. McClure and Mr. A. J. Garred, of this city, who recently went to France, writes interestingly from "over there."

France, November 20, 1917. "I am now in a cantonment which, when finished will be used for the aviators. We were put in work the morning after reaching here. I was put in charge of the entire water plant, sewer system, plumbing and heating outfit, with three lieutenants as assistants. We are now working out an organization and system which I think will speed things up. Our bunch of lieutenants, all construction men, are going to do splendid teamwork from all indications. We were in Paris two nights and one day. We didn't have much time to see anything as all were busy at headquarters reporting and getting orders and looking for the paymaster. All of us received our first pay and all took French money which makes quite a big roll. We had quite a lot of fun trying to get around Paris with a little book to talk from. However, the police department is giving the Americans and English the best of protection in every respect. I understand we will get about three days off every two weeks—then we can go to Paris which is about four hours by train. There is not much gay night life there now, very few lights on account of fuel and the dark side of war.

"There are quite a few aviators, both French and Americans, here as well as many other flyers. I was talking to Quentin Roosevelt last night. He is a first lieutenant and a flyer. He has been here since the first of August and seems to be anxious to get to the front. From all indications and work being done this war will last for years, that is the camp could be used that long. We have several hundred German prisoners and are expecting about four hundred more in a few days. They are on heavy, rough work, and seem to be happy, rather than homesick. Some have been prisoners for three years, and they don't seem to want to escape, as there are very few guards. They couldn't travel far, as everyone who travels has to have a military pass. One prisoner who speaks English and who has lived in the U. S. said it was a few rich men in Germany who are keeping the war going for the profits on munitions—however, he is a German, and you can't believe all they say. I expect we will be sent to a new field in about four weeks. The commissary department is sending out turkeys for Thanksgiving. It will take about 3,400 pounds on foot—some bunch of turkeys. One thing we miss is war talk. We can't get much news on account of the fact that there are few papers we can read, and the men are all busy hurrying things along. You will get more news than we will."

A MESSAGE TO YOU.

It is wintry weather in the north and the snow-laden winds blow cold while at Clermont, Florida, it is summer time all the time.

The December leaves are hanging June-like on the trees at Clermont and the birds are singing in the branches.

The sun is shining warm on the lakes and the bathers are saying "Come in, the water is fine."

The fish are big and plentiful and appetizing and the motor boating on the River and Chain-of-Lakes is soul satisfying.

The flowers are blooming and the vegetables are ripe in the gardens of the Lake Highlands Company as they will be every day all winter through and the Club house table is loaded with delicacies.

The Golf Course leads over the Hills and the Lure of the Lakes ever in view adds to the enjoyment of this life-prolonging game in the midst of conditions incomparable for healthfulness.

The yellow oranges and grapefruit are bending the trees with their weight of fruit that is full pressed down and running over with the sweetest of juices.

The nearly 50,000 young and thriving orange and grapefruit trees clothed in their verdure of green soon to be yielding their wealth of golden fruit are gold mines in the making and worth going far to see.

The big roomy comfortable and artistic veranda of the Club House looks down on a lake mirrored with ever-changing shadows and colors that cast a spell when you come, that is not broken when you go.

The Heights of Clermont occupied by our Winter Homes Community of congenial northern people, slightly beyond description, electric lighted walks, concreted, streets graded and the purest water, MAY be equalled elsewhere in the state but never surpassed.

The 14,000 acres of 10 acre tracts for orange and grapefruit on a gently sloping surface, with perfect citrus fruit soil, protected by hundreds of warm-water lakes, MAY be approached in point of excellence but never equalled. The hundreds of miles of Automobile Roads given the name of the "Velvet Way" because of their smoothness and dustlessness and delightfulness, nowhere else reach such a high state of perfection.

As one sweeps by the Killarney Community in the midst of Hills and Dales and the Highest of Mirror Lakes, it recalls the world-famed Lakes of Killarney and the Scottish Highlands beyond the Seas.

The Clermont winds blow gently, the Clermont air is soft and balmy, and the Clermont sun set in the golden glory unapproached by any other suns that ever set!

STARTS DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

American Red Cross Launches Campaign for 15,000,000 Enrollments by Christmas Eve.

"Every American Home a Red Cross Home."

Three hundred and forty-five chapters in the Lake Division, American Red Cross, embracing Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, Monday, Dec. 17, begin a Christmas Membership Drive to make this slogan a reality by Christmas Eve. These three states have been given quotas aggregating 1,600,000 members. The objective for the entire United States is 15,000,000.

Differing altogether from recent patriotic campaigns, the Christmas Membership Drive is a campaign for people rather than for money. Although the principal memberships to be sought are the $1 and $2 classes, the real purpose behind the drive is to enroll a huge civilian army to spur the morale of our soldiers by pledging to the cause the hearts and minds of 15,000,000 Americans back home.

William Ganson Rose of Cleveland is directing the drive in these three states for James R. Garfield, former secretary of the interior and now manager of the Lake Division. Mr. Rose is giving his services to the Red Cross without compensation and has gathered a staff of associates, all prominent in commercial and advertising life. They, too, are giving their time and experience to the Red Cross without remuneration.

House to House Canvases.

A house to house canvass will be instituted in every city, town, village and hamlet. Booths will be erected everywhere. Factories and business houses will be invaded by canvassers. Flying squadrons will brave bad roads and get into the rural districts. Everyone will have the opportunity "to help bind wounds of our fighters so that every possible drop of American blood may be saved to establish world democracy."

Present members will not be asked to enroll again, but they will be given the opportunity to waive the unexpired portion of their memberships and sign up anew for the calendar year of 1918.

To every member will go a Red Cross service flag. The flag has a blue border and a white field. In the center is a Red Cross, indicating that one member of the household, where the flag hangs, belongs to the Red Cross. For each additional member in the household a Red Cross sticker will be given to be fastened in the flag's white field. If every member of the household joins, a white star will be furnished for pasting upon the flag's central cross.

"The legion of workers required to enlist this great civilian army will exceed any similar force," says Drive Director Rose. "The amount of publicity of various types used will surpass that of any previous campaign. The purposes of the drive are more comprehensive and far-reaching than those of the earlier campaigns since the inception of the war."

"Success means driving home to Germany the fact that the American people are standing firmly behind the American government in the present situation. It means inspiration to our soldiers. It means practical aid on the battlefield. It means uniting the spirit of Christmas with the Red Cross. It means a tremendous drive toward victory."

SUPPLYING ARMS AND LEGS.

French mutilles (wounded soldiers who have lost either arms or legs) gather daily at the various American Red Cross headquarters in France, seeking assistance in securing artificial arms or legs. The ones supplied by the Red Cross are the most practical to be obtained.

So great has been the demand for this sort of assistance that the Red Cross is now constructing near Paris an artificial limb factory. Also in the same locality there are being erected plants for the manufacture of splints and of nitrous oxide, the latter highly important in surgical operations.

FIRST AID TO ROUMANIA.

Sawdust was being used to dress wounds in Roumania when a special Red Cross commission reached that country. Upon recommendation of this commission, medicines, surgical instruments, hospital supplies, bandages, bed linen, colloidion, wax paper and iodine were shipped to Roumania by the American Red Cross. Later suffering became so acute in this unfortunate country that the American Red Cross War Council appropriated $1,518,000 for further relief.

ALWAYS READY FOR ACTION.

With all its war relief work, the American Red Cross is never caught unprepared for disaster or civilian relief work. This is illustrated by the fact that relief has been furnished in sixty-four disasters thus far in 1917, exclusive of the help now being given to the sufferers in the Halifax calamity. A notable example was that of the month of October when help and $125,000 was supplied by the American Red Cross to the 400,000 flood people made destitute in the flood at Tien-tsin, China.

NEWS OF THE WORLD

SATURDAY.

Notwithstanding unwarlike occurrences, the allied forces in their warfare against the Central Powers are making steady progress toward victory, and peace proposals toward Germany are being made. The British Premier, David Lloyd George, has summarized the situation in the world war. The Premier said it was folly to exaggerate the situation created by the events in Russia and the possibility of the release of hundreds of thousands of the enemy to attack Great Britain, France and Italy, but that if Russia had decided to abandon the struggle the American democracy was taking it up. He added, was gambling on the failure of the United States to transport her army to Europe, and the future of the world depended on the efforts of Great Britain, and the United States to increase their output of ships next year.

The Shields Waterpower Bill for leasing of power sites in navigable streams was passed by the Senate and sent to the House, and the bill for leasing of lands to open the way for development of wells to meet the fuel shortage was hastened on the road to accomplishment. Both of these measures are of tremendous interest to the West and of vital importance to the prosecution of the war.

Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare, convicted of making disloyal utterances in a speech at Birmingham, N. D., last summer, tending to discourage obedience to the draft law, was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary by a Judge at Des Moines.

Accusing Ram Chandra, one of thirty-one defendants charged with fomenting revolt against British rule in India, a Hindu servant declared he was one of five Hindus sold to the German Government by Ram Chandra for $10,000.

Harry Fischel, treasurer of the Central Committee for the relief of Jews suffering through the war, proposed a $100,000,000 "Liberty Loan" for the restoration of the Jewish State of Palestine.

The Federal Shipping Board has let contracts for 4,000 ships with a carrying capacity of 8,000,000 tons, of which at least 5,000,000 tons is expected to be available next year.

SUNDAY.

The people of England and France are determined to win without giving a thought to the cost, declared Col. E. M. House on his return to New York yesterday from Europe as chairman of the American War Mission. He said that the task of the mission had been successfully accomplished. Speaking of Gen. Pershing's work, he said it was difficult, but that he was doing splendidly.

Though the Germans claim that they have taken 3,000 Italian prisoners of war during the last few days, reports from Rome say that the enemy has suffered heavily in his attacks between the Brenna and the Piave. German army headquarters report that the British have failed in their attempts to defeat the German forces on the Flanders front during the last three months.

Two airships of the nonrigid type have been lost by the British, one of which was sunk by a seaplane in the North Sea while on patrol duty and the other being compelled to descend in Dutch territory because of engine trouble. The British Admiralty also announces the sinking of a British destroyer through a collision, all but two of those on board being saved.

Charges made by Claus Spreckels, president of the Federal Sugar Refining company, that the Food Administration is responsible for a sugar shortage, drew from Food Administrator Hoover a vigorous attack on Mr. Spreckels. Mr. Hoover said Mr. Spreckels is sore because his profits have been cut down.

Recruiting offices in many cities were swamped with volunteers for enlistment in the Regular Army yesterday, the last day on which men subject to the selective draft could volunteer in the service of their choice. The total number of volunteers to the Regular Army since April, it was announced, now number $27,247.

American troops in the United States and abroad are in excellent spirits, W. Frank Parsons, director general of civilian relief of the American Red Cross, announced. Whether they maintain this morale will depend largely upon the home service of the Red Cross, he said.

In thanking the United States for its declaration to strictly observe the neutrality of Switzerland and the Swiss Confederation, in a communication made public at Washington by the State Department, declares it will maintain its neutrality by its own forces and will renege any violation of its frontiers.

Jews of the United States have oversubscribed the $10,000,000 fund for war relief and welfare work among their race. Jacob H. Schiff made up a deficit of $40,000 in New York's campaign, although he had previously contributed $200,000.

Recognition of the War Department on a source of General Staff business and adoption of universal military service as a national policy are recommended in the last annual report of Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott as Chief of Staff.

A university has been established behind the Canadian firing line to equip the Canadians for greater efficiency in business, the professions, agriculture and industry when peace is restored.

The National Fuel Administration, aroused by reports of nationwide suffering due to shortage of coal, is redoubling its efforts to release supplies held on railroad tracks by car congestion.

MONDAY.

Strongly opposing a declaration of war by the United States against Turkey and Bulgaria, Dr. James L. Barton, secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, gives forty-eight reasons against such action, the most dominant being that Turkey and Bulgaria are completely in Germany's power and the atrocities committed by the Turks were in reality by German agents. He declares Turkey friendly with America.

Many square miles of desolate march land and floating fortresses, mounting huge guns, comprise well-nigh unsalable defenses of Venice, writes an Associated Press correspondent, who was allowed to traverse the swampy areas. The inundation makes the "Queen of the Adriatic" the best-protected city threatened by the war.

The Austro-German army in Northern Italy, despite terrible losses, continues its effort to break through the Italian line and reach the plains below. By throwing a terrific force against the Italian line the Austrians were able to advance to Capriale Hill at the head of San Lorenzo Valley, which leads to the Venetian plains.

Former Premier Caillaux, defending himself against suspension from the Chamber of Deputies, declared a plot was concocted against him by Camille Barrère, the French Ambassador to Italy. Caillaux denied making an unpatriotic speech in Italy and declared foreigner were resorted to with a view to casting disfavor upon him.

The agreement for an armistice between the Bolshevik government in Russia and the Teutonic Allies has been signed. It will run from today to January 14, and then will continue in force automatically unless seven days' notice of its discontinuance is given. Upon the signing of an armistice peace negotiations are to begin.

Canadian voters to-day will be confronted by the selective draft as the great issue. Sir Robert Borden, leader of the new Union Government, declared that if his party is defeated Canada must drop out of the war for lack of men to keep her fighting forces up to the necessary strength.

Civilian crews of ships carrying troops and supplies to France are giving much trouble. Quartermaster General Sharpe said in his annual report, made public yesterday, and the recommendation is made that all officers and men be brought into the military service.

In the rush to push to conclusion a domestic legislation before the holidays, after which time Congress will give undivided attention to war problems, the House this afternoon will vote on the national prohibition question.

As soon as the weather permits trench digging and other necessary work will be resumed at Camp Zachary Taylor, where the men have been confined to their barracks for over a week.

A WINTER NIGHT.

When the early shadows fall,
What a joy to mortal eye
To gaze far out across the dark
Expanse of night
To the lights in the evening sky.
The new moon, a silvery crescent,
Her loveliest phase is showing
And Venus hanging near
Like a golden censer's glowing.

Eastward Great Dog and Orion,
And the red war god, Mars,
Jupiter, and the poet's star,
Are I rightest among the stars
And the Pleiades, that mystic group,
Like seven tiny lamps are burning
While the Great Bear is, forever,
About the pole star turning.

Far off in von milky way
Countless suns in distant splendor roll:
The grandeur of the works of God
Amaze the loftiest soul.

For He hath made them all
And set them in the dome above,
There forever to witness
Of His mighty power and love.

And when wise men from out the east
Pursued their journey o'er the wild
He sent the Star of Bethlehem
To lead them to the CHILD.

And while celestial lights were shining
Angels chanted a sweet refrain,
Singing, sweetly singing,
"Peace on earth, good will towards men."

And would now that once again,
Though the sound of war is heard afar,
The world might list to the heavenly music
And be guided by the STAR.

DOGS OR SHEEP?

The announcement is made that Kentucky farmers interested in sheep growing are soon to hold a meeting in Louisville, to take steps toward giving this industry a badly needed stimulation.

The one great hindrance to successful sheep raising in Kentucky is the worthless dog. Until the law is changed and better protection afforded the farmer against the ravages of the dog, we cannot hope for a material increase in sheep production in this state.

In 1860 we had 939,000 sheep in Kentucky and the population was 1,055,634, while in 1916 we had only 411,000 sheep and a population more than double that of 1860. The need of more sheep—more meat and more wool—was never more keenly felt. And yet we have more dogs than sheep in Kentucky. There is a great shortage of dogs in Kentucky, due in part to the high cost of feed and the fact that the dog is a scavenger. We could raise and fatten 50,000 head of dogs on the food that is being wasted on worthless dogs.

Very recently the Henry County Fiscal Court allowed to farmers claims totaling $650, for sheep killed by dogs. Thousands of dollars are paid out annually in this way and thousands of dollars worth of meat and wool go the dog route.

There are thousands of acres of land all over Kentucky suited to no other purpose than sheep grazing, but this waste land cannot be utilized because of a multiplicity of worthless dogs. Hundreds of farmers because of this are made land poor.

Kentucky farmers are anxious to heed their country's call for more meat and more wool, and if the coming legislation will enact a law placing such restrictions on dogs as will permit the farmer to have his flock unmolested the sheep industry in old Kentucky will soon show a great improvement. Other states have splendid laws protecting sheep from dogs, and why not Kentucky. Such a law should be enacted as was proposed.

It is to be hoped that farmers will write their Senators and Representatives and urge the enactment of a law that will make possible the raising of more sheep. WARREN M. MEEK, Auxier, Kentucky.

AID OUR MEN IN GERMANY

Negotiations Entered into to Secure Best Conditions for Americans Captured on the Battle Front—When Germans Are Held.

Washington.—The United States has opened negotiations with Germany for an agreement to govern the treatment of prisoners of war taken by either nation. This is being done with the hope of securing the best possible conditions for Americans taken prisoner on the battle front, and to show Germany how well German prisoners in the United States are being treated.

Already, through the Red Cross at Geneva, the United States has begun forwarding food and other necessities to Americans held in Germany, of whom there are now more than one hundred.

Get Plenty of Money.

German military prisoners of war in the United States, besides receiving every necessity and comfort, have the pay and privileges of their rank in the United States army and navy. They are housed in model sanitary camps, and recently one of the prisoners sending a letter to his prospective wife in Germany wrote that the pay he would accumulate during his imprisonment would not only permit him to retire from the navy, but would set them up in a little business as well.

Photographs showing the comfortable surroundings of interned Germans in this country have been forwarded to Germany by the war department through the state department and a neutral agent. They are intended to show that interned Germans are well treated by the United States and to reveal the expectation of the United States that similar consideration will be shown American soldiers and sailors who may be captured by Germany.

Two classes of German prisoners are detained in this country. One is comprised of German sailors taken into custody when the United States interned various vessels at the beginning of the war. The other class is comprised of enemy aliens, civilians who have been arrested and are now being detained under governmental regulations for various reasons.

800 at McPherson.

The principal detention camp is at Fort McPherson, Ga., where approximately 800 war prisoners are held in custody of the war department. At Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., there are 105 enemy aliens who are not, strictly speaking, prisoners of war.

At Fort Douglas, Utah, there are 517 prisoners of war and 50 interned aliens.

Altogether, there are 1,064 actual prisoners of war in custody of the war department, and about 400 interned enemy aliens held at the request of the department of justice. Of this number, about three score are located at Taboga Island, Panama. It is estimated that Germany is now holding 150 sailors taken from American ships by commerce raiders and other German vessels, besides the first prisoners taken from General Pershing's forces.

The detained Germans, wherever located in the United States, are considered treated and are not given onerous tasks. The duties assigned are strictly in accord with international law.

Reading and recreation facilities are provided, and the photographs collected from the several detention camps show German prisoners going through outdoor gymnastic exercises and staging amateur plays on improvised stages in the recreation rooms.

BORROWS MONEY TO BUY LIBERTY BONDS

Albany, Ore.—C. M. Giddings of this city was so anxious to own some Liberty bonds of the second issue that he borrowed $1,000 for a year at 6 per cent interest. As he will receive only 4 per cent interest on the bonds it will cost him 2 per cent a year to own the bonds. Giddings has plenty of real estate here, but had no cash with which to purchase the bonds.

GERMAN BUTTER RATION CUT

About One Ounce a Week Is Limit, Per Person, Says Copenhagen Dispatch.

Copenhagen.—The butter ration in greater Berlin has been reduced for the winter to thirty grams, approximately one ounce, weekly. Fifty grams of margarine are also granted, but the newspapers point out that margarine is principally water and has little nutritive value.

Food Administrator von Walldow has announced that a special department would be organized to enlighten the people on the food situation. This announcement evoked the comment from one newspaper that "the stomach is not a road."

WORK FOR MAIMED

Plan for Re-Education of Disabled American Soldiers.

To Be Helped to Rehabilitate Themselves as Useful Citizens of the Republic.

Washington.—Now that our troops have begun to actually take part in the great war, a great problem will soon have to be faced. It will soon have to be faced. It will have to do with the re-education of disabled soldiers. It will not be enough for the government to place those who are permanently disabled in soldiers' homes and allow them to complete their existence in material comfort, but those who are partially disabled so as to make them unable to return to the occupations and trades which they left to serve their country will have to be re-educated in some employment which will enable them to rehabilitate themselves as useful citizens of the republic.

Although the plans have not progressed enough to make a formal announcement of their scope, it is known that the war department, the surgeon general's office, is working on the theory that the re-education must commence in the hospital while the patient is convalescent.

The government will probably follow closely the plans of the Canadian government, which is to continue its military control over the badly wounded until a competent board consisting of officers, doctors and laymen pronounce the re-education complete and the soldier ready for new employment.

According to accepted theories, the re-employment of the faculties begins in the hospital bed with games and puzzles which excite the interest and take the mind off misfortunes. The mildly maimed often lose courage and hope, and have often after previous wars insisted upon being supported by the government in soldiers' homes without effort on their own behalf.

CONQUEST AND KULTUR

From all this it appears that the Monroe doctrine cannot be justified. . . . So it remains only what we Europeans have described as an inspiration. And so it remains only what we Europeans almost universally consider it, an impotence. With a money cry they try to make an impression on the world and succeed, especially with the stupid. The inviolability of the American soil is invoked without there being at hand the slightest means of warding off the attack of a respectable European power.—Johannes Volpert, Alteutsche Blätter, Jan. 17, 1908.

Seek Help of Children.

Washington.—Plans for enlisting the services of the children of the country in the campaign to save coal are being cut by the conservation division of the federal fuel administration. Boy scouts and school children generally are in a position to aid in the coal conservation campaign, by making use of waste products which can be utilized as fuel.

Big Saving in Sugar.

Washington.—An annual saving of 10,000,000 pounds of sugar and 12,000,000 pounds of shortening is the estimate made by the cracker manufacturers of the country as a result of the new rules made for them by the United States food administration.

NOW SKILLED MECHANICS

The photograph shows one of the girl machinists at work in the plant of the General Electric company at Philadelphia.

Knowing that many of their men would volunteer for service and others be taken for the new National army, the company added a number of women to their machine-shop staff. They have made good and as rapidly as men leave women step into their places, keeping things going with results just as good, if not better, than those obtained during male operation of the works. Women appear at workbenches and drills, at cutters and heavy presses. There is nothing that they haven't tried their hands at. The fact that women have made good in the big shops of the railroads has led many other large corporations to permanently enlist the fair ones in their service.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks.

He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture.

I sent and bought Thedford's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when I began to act he faintly, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Thedford's Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it!

ALL BRITONS TO "DO THEIR BIT"

Government Begins Final "Comb Out" for Men to Swell Military Ranks.

WOMEN MUST DO SHARE

Those Unable to Fight Are Called for Other Necessary Service—Economy of Effort, Expense and Material Demanded.

London.—With 5,000,000 men in uniform, and with other millions, both men and women, engaged in occupations heretofore less directly concerned with the war's prosecution, England is organizing one more "comb out" to find men for military service, and both men and women for other essential employments. The appeal for men to don uniforms and for workers is accompanied by a renewed insistence upon the utmost economy of every effort, expense and material. Economy is the watchword of the new national service campaign under the direction of Sir Auckland Geddes, minister of national service.

"Woman's clothes are the grave of an enormous amount of human energy," he said. "New hats alone absorb the work of millions of fingers, and whatever effect they may have that effect certainly does not include helping to beat the enemy."

"If we are to make the great effort that we should make, if we really are going to make the greatest effort in our history, our imagination must be quickened to understand the effect of our smallest actions. Everywhere, in practically every home, we are wasting something. I am sorry to say that we have great organizations which exist to encourage waste."

Only Necessities of War.

Sir Auckland insists, the government is beginning to insist, the people are beginning to understand, that consumption to a great extent has got to stop. The producing capacity of the country has got to be saved to turn out the absolute necessities of life and of war.

The case is being laid before the British people now in the very simplest terms. Not only is everybody urged to eat the least possible amount of food necessary to maintain good physical condition but everybody is told that he must wear his clothes longer, must be satisfied with patched boots, must cut down his expenditures for every kind of luxury, for amusement.

But that is only the beginning. The hands that would have been occupied in making the new dress that my lady is not going to buy and that therefore will not be made; the fingers that would have employed themselves preparing the confection of a hat that is going to be forsworn; the skill and handicraft that would have found occupation producing suits of clothes that are not going to be bought or worn; all these must find employment of another kind; employment at producing the things necessary, and absolutely necessary, to national life and national war.

Domestic Service a Problem.

Particular attention is being given to the problem of domestic service, which represents immense wastes of human energy. Now, a woman is likely to lose her social standing if she advertises for a servant, especially if she mentions in the advertisement, as many English housewives do, that her establishment is based on the butler and three maids, or the butler, housekeeper and four maids, or something of that sort. For her advertisement is likely to become the basis of deplorable comment by folks who wonder why the butler is not in uniform and name of the maids at least in a tasteful factory.

While the authorities who are looking for men power and women power insist that altogether too much of it is wasted in domestic service, householders declare that it is becoming practically impossible to get service at all. Moreover, it is likely to continue so for a long period, because women, young and old, who have tasted the satisfaction of that more independent existence that is vouchsafed to other workers are almost without exception determined that they will never go back into domestic service.

Here is the formula for the mobilization of national man power and national financial resources: Discharge your servants and see that they get enlisted in national service. Save the money that you would have paid them in wages and buy war bonds. The government will pay that money to your former servants as wages for making munitions. The rest of the money that you save by reason of discharging your domestic establishment will be deftly taken away from you by the government through its instrumentalities of taxation and used to maintain the armies in France and in almost all the other quarters of the world. Another energy that is being tapped is the great class of women who have never imagined that it was part of their life, to engage in gainful occupation. There are fewer of them in England than there were before the war. But there are still many of them, and the effort is to enlist them for useful service.

HOW TO BUY POULTRY

Government Warns Against Ice-Packed Chickens.

Worth 10 to 15 Per Cent Per Pound Less Than Those Properly Handled.

Washington.—Paying the same price for wet-packed chickens as for dry-packed involves heavy money loss to the consumer, according to the dressed poultry specialists of the United States department of agriculture. Government experiments have shown that wet-packing a broiler and sending it to market on ice causes it to lose 15 per cent of its value and some loss about 10 per cent. If dry-packed broilers are worth 40 cents, wet-packed are not worth more than 35 cents; if dry-packed fowls cost 30 cents, wet-packed one should not cost over 27 cents.

A chicken thrown into ice water to remove animal heat and sent to market in a barrel in direct contact with cracked ice, it is pointed out, absorbs water for which the consumer has to pay chicken prices. The water also dissolves out from the chicken, valuable flavoring and nutritive substances. These go into the water at the bottom of the barrel along with filth that is washed from dirty feet and bloody heads, and trickles downward over the poultry.

With a dry-packed chicken the animal heat is removed by hanging the bird in an artificially cooled room maintained at nearly freezing temperature. The chicken is then packed into a box containing 12 birds and sent to market. The box is hauled in refrigerator cars and is kept by good retailers in good ice boxes until sold. The bird is never wet, has no chance to absorb water or become washed out. A bird should never be wet until it gets a final quick rinsing off in the housewife's kitchen. The practice of some housewives of soaking a chicken after it is dressed, in a pan of water, even for an hour or two, helps to leech out valuable qualities.

CONQUEST AND KULTUR

The German empire has become a world empire. Everywhere in distant quarters of the earth thousands of our countrymen are living. German guardians of the sea, German science, German industry, are going across the sea. The value of what Germany has upon the sea amounts to thousands of millions. It is your earnest duty, gentlemen, to help build this greater German empire firmly to our ancestral home. It is my wish that, standing in closest union, you help me to do my duty not only to my countrymen in a narrow sense, but also to the many thousands of countrymen in foreign lands. This means that I may be able to protect them if I must.—Kaiser's speech, June 18, 1908.

Higher Prices at Fur Sales.

London.—Fur is in keen demand just at present and a marked increase in price resulted at the October sale. Chinese, Australian and Russian supplies were very scarce, while American furs were not half sufficient to meet the demand. Prices ranged from 25 per cent to 100 per cent advance on previous sales.

FLYERS BREAK ALL AERIAL RECORDS

Allied Aviators Perform Sensational Speed and Distance Feats.

GO FROM ENGLAND TO ITALY

Cadorna's Call for "Airplanes and Pilots" Is Answered by Great Britain and France—Few Accidents Are Reported.

Paris.—So many speed and distance records have been shattered and set and then surpassed again by allied aviators that it is doubtful if the best performances will ever be straightened out and set down on the official books.

But aviators have been flying from points in England and in France to the Italian front every day, as the British and French war offices have outdone themselves in their efforts to re-enforce the French aviation service. Pilots just breasted—and there were a certain number of Americans among them—soared into the air, and following the lead of an instructor or some veteran aviator, set their course for Italy.

Youths who had not sat in an airplane two months before, duplicated the feat of Roland Garros which startled the world a few years ago; the traversing of the Italian Alps. Flights of 400, 500 and 600 miles without stop were common occurrences. And in all cases the average speed maintained was considerably more than 100 miles an hour.

Asks for Airplanes.

One of General Cadorna's first requests to the French and British was for re-enforcements in airplanes and pilots. The Germans had assembled several scores of their best fighting and bombing squadrons on the Italian front and had struck suddenly in a body. In one day the German formations had practically cleared the air of Italian fighting aircraft, and they followed up this advantage by sending over into the Italian lines squadron after squadron of bombing machines. Incendiary bombs and aerial torpedoes were rained on the Italian aviation fields and the hangars and Italian aircraft burned together.

Both the French and British general staffs realized that without its "eyes" the Italian army might wander into traps and pitfalls. And they gave the order at once to re-enforce the Italian aviation service with their own squadrons. The order went out to all the aviation camps and schools in England and France. Within a few hours the orders were being executed.

Pilots having passed their brevets were mustered out on the fields. They were told to wear two leather and rubber union suits instead of the single garment they usually wear. The gasoline tanks were filled and they were instructed to follow the leader. Then they soared off in long columns, all headed toward the Italian Alps.

Cover Vast Territory.

Some of the British machines went clear across England, traversed the channel, then soared over France and sailed the Alps and proceeded straight on to the Tagliamento line without ever descending. French machines flew from remote corners of the republic over the great mountain range and across the plains of Lombardy to Udine, arriving there before the Italians were forced to retreat from that strategic railway center.

I may not even vaguely indicate the number of airplanes that were sent from France and England, but I can state that the number of accidents was as low as the average total for a day at any of the big aviation schools.

ASKS STATUES FOR LONDON

Harvard Professor Would Make Britons Familiar With Great Americans.

London.—A plan for the erection of more statues of great Americans in London was made here recently by Professor Sumichrath of Harvard, speaking before the American Luncheon club.

"We who have the chance," he said, "must do all in our power to make England better known to Americans and America and its people better known in England. Any misunderstanding that may exist between the two countries is purely the result of ignorance of one another. I would have statues of every great American set up in London, so that every Englishman as he walks through these streets may learn to know the features and story of Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, Abraham Lincoln and many others who stood up for liberty and made it possible for Great Britain, France and the United States to stand together today in the battle for humanity."

Gold Nuggets Worth $1,155.

Coffee Creek, Cal.—Three gold nuggets, with a total valuation of $1,155, were portions of a cleanup made recently by Patrick Holland in his placer mine near here. One of the nuggets was valued at $600, another $400 and the third $155. These are the largest nuggets found in the county for several years. The remainder of the cleanup, which amounted to $600, was in small gold, several pieces of which were valued at $5 each.

The revival meetings continue to draw the people to the M. E. Church South. On Tuesday afternoon the evangelist, Mr. Knight, gave an illustrated talk to the young folks on the power of habits. The public school attended in a body and Mr. Knight selected one of the boys to come to the platform. He then wound a thread around him a few times and told the boy to break them which he readily did. Mr. Knight then wrapped a great many threads around the boy and the boy could not break them. Watch your young habits.
